For those who have their craft on trailers there are two public launching sites within the town:

The main site is at Polly Steps which is just upriver from the docks and is accessed via the rear of the dock complex. This is a concrete slipway and has facilities for parking of cars and trailers run by Teignbridge District Council. Launching is restricted at low water.

The second site at Gales Hill beach is situated immediately down river from the dock complex.

It is important that when launching within the River Teign that you complete a Watercraft Registration form - <https://teignmouthharbour.com/watercraft-registration/> and receive a permit from the Harbour Office, The Dive Centre, or Seasports. You may need to show proof of craft insurance.

Public landing steps and pontoon are on the Fish Quay which is to the side of the New Quay Inn.

Restaurants, shops and pubs

Teignmouth has a wide range of shops and small outlets in the town where fresh provisions can be obtained. There are also many interesting pubs and wine bars as well as plenty of places for eating out or takeaway. All are within easy walking distance of the harbour and river beach.

Shaldon has several pubs and restaurants worth visiting. The small village can be reached by Ferry from the river beach.

Also worth visiting is Coombe Cellars and the Passage House Inn, both of which are up river and accessible by boat. Obviously it is necessary to check tides, weather and the guide to the upper estuary before setting out.
